THE FRANKLIN LYCEUM.—The exhibition given by this popular society on Wednesday evening last afforded an intellectual treat of more than ordinary richness to a large and respectable company of ladies and gentlemen. Several original essays and well-selected recitations were delivered on the occasion. Where all executed admirably it might be deemed invidious to particularize; but at the hazard of incurring the charge of partiality, we would commend, for their many excellencies, the addresses of Messrs. William Anderson, James W. Sheahan, E. C. Morgan, and J. S. Byrne. We hope this interesting body, formed for the nurture and cultivation of youthful intellect, may continue to merit the applause which is now so generously bestowed upon it by the friends of literature.

NEW PUBLICATIONS .- We have received from the periodical depot of W. Taylor & Co., Pennsylvania Avenue, next door to Beers's Hotel, No. 1 of "Sketches of Irish Character," by Mrs. S. C. Hall, an illustrated edition, to be completed in 24 numbers; No. 12 of Harper's Pictorial Bible; and Arthur's Ladies' Magazine, for December, being the last number of the second volume.
